Due to the limited scope of our personal information processing, we are not required to designate a data protection officer. For any questions or to exercise any of your rights described below, please contact ERAAM's Chief Compliance Officer at contact@eraam.com

Who is providing this notice?

ERAAM

How does ERAAM protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, ERAAM has implemented security measures in compliance with applicable law. These measures include computer safeguards, secured files and buildings, as well as organizational measures such as giving access to your personal information only to the employees, agents or service providers that need it.

When information about you is disclosed to non-affiliated third parties (such as a fund administrator or a payroll processor, for instance), we require that the third party maintain the confidentiality of the information disclosed and limit the use of information by the third party solely to the purposes for which the information is disclosed or as otherwise required by law. Where such third parties are located outside the European Union, ERAAM has taken steps to ensure that your personal information remains treated with an equivalent level of security as that applicable in the European Union.

How does ERAAM collect my personal information?

ERAAM collects your personal information, for example, when you:

- Provide information related to a subscription form, investor questionnaire, investor meeting, tax or account form, in person, by telephone, electronically or by another other means
- Provide account balances and instruct transactions
- Provide personal information to other financial institutions and service providers who have a contractual relationship with ERAAM and who are authorized to provide your personal information to ERAAM

What are my rights?

Under GDPR, you have the right to:

- Access any personal information held about you at any time
- Receive information regarding any entities we share your personal information with
- Where this does not conflict with the execution of a contract with you or applicable laws and regulations, request that we rectify and/or erase personal information concerning you, restrict the use of your data in certain circumstances, or object to our processing of personal information concerning you
- Receive all the personal information we have concerning you and/or request that we send it to another data controller
- Lodge a complaint with the relevant personal data supervisory authority.
- ERAAM processes customer or prospect requests on personal data within 1 month
